

CREATE THE SUMMER OF YOUR DREAMS at Magis Summer Camp June 7th—June 25th, 2010 Monday — Friday
Course Title	Description	Grade levels..	Period(s)
The Apprentice	Calling all aspiring entrepreneurs who would love to learn how to develop a for real small, practical business! Students will choose/create a business, develop a name, logo, slogan, and advertising flyers for the business, create advertising, and write a business plan outline. So, if you have ever dreamed of being your “own boss” like Donald Trump, then “You’re hired!” for this class! Who knows? Maybe you will be the next kid millionaire!!!	Incoming 4 5 6	1
Cooking Up A Storm	Come measure and mix as we make some melt-in-your-mouth tasty treats!	Incoming 3rd, 4th, and 5th	1
Imaginarium	Storytelling, art, and community building! Come join us!	Incoming Kindergarten-aged children	1,2,3,4
The Literature Works!	Students will read a novel, discuss the story elements on a daily basis, and work on a writing piece.	Incoming 7th and 8th	1 and 2 (2 period class)
Learning to Lead	Ever wonder how you could become a leader at school, among friends, in clubs or on sports teams? There are skills you can learn that help you help others. Self-confidence: the art of being yourself. Public speaking: saying what you mean. Organization: starting with the end in mind. Team-building: inviting others to help. Authenticity: genuinely expressing your values. Guardianship: caring for others. The sooner you learn to lead the sooner you can help make a difference in the world. Get involved now so you can step into leadership roles tomorrow!	Incoming 4th, 5th, and 6th	1
Mad Skills!	Let’s use puzzles, plays, and books to develop skills in studying, organization, problem-solving, and critical thinking!	Incoming 4th, 5th, and 6th	1

Course Title	Description	Grade levels..	Period(s)
Mixed Media	Let's explore your imagination through the use of different types of media. Get ready to create collages, drawings, and paintings with all kinds of fun and tactile materials. At the end of three weeks, we will present our creative creations to our parents! So get ready to explore your creativity and use your imagination!		1
Peacemakers	Do you have any plans to change the world? Come share your ideas as we use literature, movies, and the news to find examples of people who've made a difference and figure out ways to put our own ideas into action.	Incoming 5th through 8th	1
Play Math!	Let's play games like "Seven Up", "Cinco", "Four Strikes You're Out" and "Pig" and we'll say we're doing stuff like COMPUTATION, PROBLEM SOLVING, PROBABILITY and ALGEBRA. Become a math gaming expert to keep your skills sharp and learn new skills. We may even invent a game or two!	Incoming 4th	1
Primary Power Up	Beginning with incoming 1 st , 2 nd , and 3 rd graders, all students will work each day on review and enrichment activities in math and reading, attend one alternate activity daily in music, art, science, storytime, and movin' & groovin', and join in the fun for Vacation Bible School. All Class periods are for 45 minutes with a snack time and a short recess period added.	Incoming 1,2,3,	1,2,3,4
Robotics 4,5	Spend three weeks building a Lego NXT robot and learn basic programming concepts using Lego Mindstorms software. Students will work together in small groups promoting collaboration teamwork. Students will learn how to make their robot move and will incorporate the use of sensors to control the robot. THIS IS NOT A LEGO BUILDING COURSE.	incoming 4th and 5th	1 and 2 (2 period class)
Science Sleuths	Have you got a theory? Come and investigate and test it in our hands-on class!	incoming 4th - 8th	1
Self Expression	How can you bring the real you forward? How can your ideas be best expressed? Utilizing various means of expression, participants will explore ways to articulate ideas, build upon insights, access their imagination, and share their best selves. This opportunity to discover what you have to offer by tapping into the arts, self-reflection, and personal expression will allow you to celebrate who you are, and consider how you might share your unique gift of self with others.	Incoming 4th - 8th	1
So You think You Can Dance...Sing...Act!	A musical theater camp that pulls it all together: singing, dancing and acting. Not for the faint of heart, you will learn how to perform using all three skills. Working with others, participants will perform daily, be coached through ways to strengthen your performance(s), and prepare a final show for an audience. This course will be taught by successful performers who have experience in musical theater and know what it takes. Be ready to have fun, work hard and form an ensemble!	Incoming 4th - 8th	1

Course Title	Description	Grade levels..	Period(s)
Soccer Camp	Game On! Soccer camp for all player levels includes basic skills, offense and defense strategies, and scrimmaging. Field equipment (excluding cleats) and on-site drinking water is provided. Students should dress for summer weather; plus soccer cleats, shin guards, and a personal water bottle are suggested.	all levels	1
Spanish Immersion	This is a Spanish Bridge Class designed for freshmen students or any student needing a review of Spanish I. This course will review the skills necessary to be successful in High School Spanish 2. Students will develop their understanding of grammatical concepts as well as compound verb tenses. A grade of "B" or better or a teacher recommendation and passing score on second language placement exam are required for placement into High School Spanish 2.	Incoming 7th and 8th	1 and 2 (2 period class)

Course Title	Description	Grade levels..	Period(s)
The Apprentice	Calling all aspiring entrepreneurs who would love to learn how to develop a for real small, practical business! Students will choose/create a business, develop a name, logo, slogan, and advertising flyers for the business, create advertising, and write a business plan outline. So, if you have ever dreamed of being your “own boss” like Donald Trump, then “You’re hired!” for this class! Who knows? Maybe you will be the next kid millionaire!!!	Incoming 4 5 6	2
Imaginarium continued	Storytelling, art, and community building! Come join us!	Incoming Kindergarten-aged children	continued from period 1
Learning to Lead	Ever wonder how you could become a leader at school, among friends, in clubs or on sports teams? There are skills you can learn that help you help others. Self-confidence: the art of being yourself. Public speaking: saying what you mean. Organization: starting with the end in mind. Team-building: inviting others to help. Authenticity: genuinely expressing your values. Guardianship: caring for others. The sooner you learn to lead the sooner you can help make a difference in the world. Get involved now so you can step into leadership roles tomorrow!	Incoming 3rd - 5th	2
The Literature Works continued	see block 1		continued from block 1
Mad Skills!	Let's use puzzles, plays, and books to develop skills in studying, organization, problem-solving, and critical thinking!	Incoming 4th, 5th, and 6th	2
Mixed Media	Let's explore your imagination through the use of different types of media. Get ready to create collages, drawings, and paintings with all kinds of fun and tactile materials. At the end of three weeks, we will present our creative creations to our parents! So get ready to explore your creativity and use your imagination!		2
Primary Power up continued	see block 1	Incoming 1,2,3	continued from block 1
Robotics 4,5 continued	see block 1	Incoming 4th and 5th	continued from block 1

Course Title	Description	Grade levels..	Period(s)
Self Expression	How can you bring the real you forward? How can your ideas be best expressed? Utilizing various means of expression, participants will explore ways to articulate ideas, build upon insights, access their imagination, and share their best selves. This opportunity to discover what you have to offer by tapping into the arts, self-reflection, and personal expression will allow you to celebrate who you are, and consider how you might share your unique gift of self with others.	Incoming 3rd - 5th	2
Science Sleuths	Have you got a theory? Come and investigate and test it in our hands-on class!	incoming 4th - 8th	2
Soccer Camp	Game On! Soccer camp for all player levels includes basic skills, offense and defense strategies, and scrimmaging. Field equipment (excluding cleats) and on-site drinking water is provided. Students should dress for summer weather; plus soccer cleats, shin guards, and a personal water bottle are suggested.	all levels	2
So You think You Can Dance...Sing...Act!	A musical theater camp that pulls it all together: singing, dancing and acting. Not for the faint of heart, you will learn how to perform using all three skills. Working with others, participants will perform daily, be coached through ways to strengthen your performance(s), and prepare a final show for an audience. This course will be taught by successful performers who have experience in musical theater and know what it takes. Be ready to have fun, work hard and form an ensemble!	Incoming 3rd - 5th	2
Super Scrapbookers	Let's make a scrapbook of some of your favorite possessions and memories! Get ready to assemble a creative collection of fun using your favorite pictures, trinkets, and ideas to create a long-lasting keepsake! At the end of three weeks we will present our scrapbooks to our parents and friends.		2
Spanish Immersion continued	see block 1		continued from block 1
Win Win Math Games	Let's play games like "Seven Up", "Cinco", "Four Strikes You're Out" and "Pig" and we'll say we're doing stuff like COMPUTATION, PROBLEM SOLVING, PROBABILITY and ALGEBRA. Become a math gaming expert to keep your skills sharp and learn new skills. We may even invent a game or two!	Incoming 6th	2
Writing Wizards	Attend a wonderful workshop for ways to improve withering writing skills! Bring along your magic wand and scroll (or a pencil and paper) to transform boring, simple sentences into interesting pieces of literature. The workshop will focus on 6 + 1 writing trait mini-lessons using picture books to improve the writers ideas, sentence fluency, organization, word choice, voice, conventions and presentation. Class is appropriate for third and fourth grade students who enjoy the writing process. (1 block – 10-15 students).	Incoming 3rd and 4th	2

Course Title	Description	Grade levels..	Period(s)
The Art of Bookmaking	Making your own books is a creative and exciting art form as well as being a valuable skill in presenting material and information. This class will explore the art of bookmaking through both simple and complex traditional bookmaking forms. Some of the bookmaking techniques that will be addressed in the class include simple folded paper books, accordion books, fan books, hardcover books, and a variety of books bound using traditional Japanese bookbinding techniques.	Incoming 6th, 7th, 8th	3
Globe Trotters	Let's travel around the world as we learn about cultures, languages, and stories of the past.	Incoming 4th, 5th, 6th	3
Got Grammar?	Let's rock 'n' roll this summer as we create fun lyrics & games to reinforce and learn new grammar concepts. The instruction designed for this class is for students who struggle with grammar or who need skills reinforced.	Incoming 4th, 5th, 6th	3
Imaginarium continued	Storytelling, art, and community building! Come join us!	Incoming Kindergarten-aged children	continued from period 1
The Literature Works!	Students will read a novel, discuss the story elements on a daily basis, and work on a writing piece.	Incoming 7th and 8th	3 and 4 (two period class)
Learning to Lead	Ever wonder how you could become a leader at school, among friends, in clubs or on sports teams? There are skills you can learn that help you help others. Self-confidence: the art of being yourself. Public speaking: saying what you mean. Organization: starting with the end in mind. Team-building: inviting others to help. Authenticity: genuinely expressing your values. Guardianship: caring for others. The sooner you learn to lead the sooner you can help make a difference in the world. Get involved now so you can step into leadership roles tomorrow!	Incoming 6th - 8th	3
Primary Power Up continued	see block 1		continued from block 1
Robotics 6,7,8	Spend three weeks building a Lego NXT robot and programming it using Lego Mindstorms software to complete various projects and scientific investigations. , Students come away with a greater appreciation of science and technology and how they might use it to positively impact the world around them. In addition, they cultivate life skills such as planning, brainstorming, collaboration and teamwork. THIS IS NOT A LEGO BUILDING COURSE.	Incoming 6th, 7th, 8th	3 and 4 (two period class)

Course Title	Description	Grade levels..	Period(s)
Science Sleuths	Have you got a theory? Come and investigate and test it in our hands-on class!	incoming 4th - 8th	3
Self Expression	How can you bring the real you forward? How can your ideas be best expressed? Utilizing various means of expression, participants will explore ways to articulate ideas, build upon insights, access their imagination, and share their best selves. This opportunity to discover what you have to offer by tapping into the arts, self-reflection, and personal expression will allow you to celebrate who you are, and consider how you might share your unique gift of self with others.	Incoming 6th - 8th	3
So You think You Can Dance...Sing...Act!	A musical theater camp that pulls it all together: singing, dancing and acting. Not for the faint of heart, you will learn how to perform using all three skills. Working with others, participants will perform daily, be coached through ways to strengthen your performance(s), and prepare a final show for an audience. This course will be taught by successful performers who have experience in musical theater and know what it takes. Be ready to have fun, work hard and form an ensemble!	Incoming 6th - 8th	3
Spanish Immersion	This is a Spanish Bridge Class designed for freshmen students or any student needing a review of Spanish I. This course will review the skills necessary to be successful in High School Spanish 2. Students will develop their understanding of grammatical concepts as well compound verb tenses. A grade of “ B ” or better or a teacher recommendation and passing score on second language placement exam are required for placement into High School Spanish 2.	7th and 8th	3 and 4 (two period class)
A to Z Readers	Come practice your reading skills in a small group setting, reading material that is just right for you! This class will assess student reading level and provide individualized lessons for each student, targeting the areas of comprehension, fluency, and vocabulary. We will practice reading skills everyday for three weeks using materials such readers theater scripts, poetry and high interest, non fiction minibooks, all from our A-Z Reading Program. Classes are accepting ages 6-7 years olds and 8 -9 year olds with a limit of ten students per block.	Incoming 1st and 2nd grade	3
Tell Me a Story	Calling all storytellers! This course in digital storytelling will explore the elements of story – including Asking the Question, Telling the Feelings, and Using Sound – to create digital short stories. Come and see our film festival at the end of the three weeks!	Incoming 5th through 8th	3
X Games	Let’s play games like “Seven Up”, “Cinco”, “Four Strikes You’re Out” and “Pig” and we’ll say we’re doing stuff like COMPUTATION, PROBLEM SOLVING, PROBABILITY and ALGEBRA. Become a math gaming expert to keep your skills sharp and learn new skills. We may even invent a game or two!	Incoming 5th	3

Course Title	Description	Grade levels..	Period(s)
Got Grammar?	Let's rock 'n' roll this summer as we create fun lyrics & games to reinforce and learn new grammar concepts. The instruction designed for this class is for students who struggle with grammar or who need skills reinforced.	Incoming 4th, 5th, and 6th	4
Globetrotters	Let's Travel around the world as we learn about cultures, languages, and stories of the past.	Incoming 4th, 5th, and 6th	4
Learning to Lead	Ever wonder how you could become a leader at school, among friends, in clubs or on sports teams? There are skills you can learn that help you help others. Self-confidence: the art of being yourself. Public speaking: saying what you mean. Organization: starting with the end in mind. Team-building: inviting others to help. Authenticity: genuinely expressing your values. Guardianship: caring for others. The sooner you learn to lead the sooner you can help make a difference in the world. Get involved now so you can step into leadership roles tomorrow!	Incoming 6th - 8th	4
Imaginarium continued	Storytelling, art, and community building! Come join us!	Incoming Kindergarten-aged children	continued from period 1
The Literature Works continued	see block 3		continued from block 3
Primary Power Up continued	see block 1		continued from block 1
Robotics 6,7,8 continued	see block 3		continued from block 3
Self Expression	How can you bring the real you forward? How can your ideas be best expressed? Utilizing various means of expression, participants will explore ways to articulate ideas, build upon insights, access their imagination, and share their best selves. This opportunity to discover what you have to offer by tapping into the arts, self-reflection, and personal expression will allow you to celebrate who you are, and consider how you might share your unique gift of self with others.	Incoming 6th - 8th	4

Course Title	Description	Grade levels..	Period(s)
So You think You Can Dance...Sing...Act!	A musical theater camp that pulls it all together: singing, dancing and acting. Not for the faint of heart, you will learn how to perform using all three skills. Working with others, participants will perform daily, be coached through ways to strengthen your performance(s), and prepare a final show for an audience. This course will be taught by successful performers who have experience in musical theater and know what it takes. Be ready to have fun, work hard and form an ensemble!	Incoming 6th - 8th	4
Spanish Immersion continued	see block 3		continued from block 3
Super Scrapbookers	Let's make a scrapbook of some of your favorite possessions and memories! Get ready to assemble a creative collection of fun using your favorite pictures, trinkets, and ideas to create a long-lasting keepsake! At the end of three weeks we will		4
A to Z Readers	Come practice your reading skills in a small group setting, reading material that is just right for you! This class will assess student reading level and provide individualized lessons for each student, targeting the areas of comprehension, fluency, and vocabulary. We will practice reading skills everyday for three weeks using materials such readers theater scripts, poetry and high interest, non fiction minibooks, all from our A-Z Reading Program. Classes are accepting ages 6-7 years olds and 8 -9 year olds with a limit of ten students per block.	Incoming 1st and 2nd grade	4
Tell Me a Story	Calling all storytellers! This course in digital storytelling will explore the elements of story – including Asking the Question, Telling the Feelings, and Using Sound – to create digital short stories. Come and see our film festival at the end of the three weeks!	Incoming 5th through 8th	4

Course Title	Description	Grade levels..	Period(s)
Kids in Print	We will publish a newspaper for the summer students and faculty. Students will write about things that are meaningful to them. We will learn journalistic style with structure. We will be accountable to deadlines. We will edit and rewrite. We will have a voice in what should be printed or not printed. Learn 20 different ways to say the word "said". Learn to conduct a good interview. Create an interview icebreaker. Conduct a press conference. Learn Proofreading and Editing Skills, Photography, and Design Hints. Learn that newspapers are a cooperative effort. Learn real-life skills such as organizing, prioritizing, meeting deadlines, creative problem solving. Create a Public Relations piece for distribution on the final day.	Incoming 5th	5
Learning to Lead	Ever wonder how you could become a leader at school, among friends, in clubs or on sports teams? There are skills you can learn that help you help others. Self-confidence: the art of being yourself. Public speaking: saying what you mean. Organization: starting with the end in mind. Team-building: inviting others to help. Authenticity: genuinely expressing your values. Guardianship: caring for others. The sooner you learn to lead the sooner you can help make a difference in the world. Get involved now so you can step into leadership roles tomorrow!	Incoming 3rd - 5th	5
Papier Mache Sculpture	Papier mache is a technique popular for its versatility is creating both functional and decorative art pieces. Students will explore the concepts of three-dimensional design through the sculptural quality of papier mache. The class will choose from a variety of projects including decorative vases, containers, and bowls as well as sculptural creatures, figures, and masks.	Incoming 4th through 8th	5
Printmaking	We will use all kinds of objects - erasers, EZ cut blocks, glue images, and other things to create our own prints - come join us!		5
Self Expression	How can you bring the real you forward? How can your ideas be best expressed? Utilizing various means of expression, participants will explore ways to articulate ideas, build upon insights, access their imagination, and share their best selves. This opportunity to discover what you have to offer by tapping into the arts, self-reflection, and personal expression will allow you to celebrate who you are, and consider how you might share your unique gift of self with others.	Incoming 3rd - 5th	5
Sizzling Spanish - Let's Dance, Sing and Learn Spanish!	A fun activity-based program that introduces children to the excitement of the Spanish language and makes them feel that learning a second language and understanding another culture can be a fun experience. Sizzling Spanish will focus on essential Spanish communication skills. We will use technology as a tool for enhance learning and will have Comp Lab one a week. Recommended for beginners and intermediate students or for all students who wish to expand their ability to speak and understand Spanish!	Incoming 4th - 6th	5

Course Title	Description	Grade levels..	Period(s)
So You think You Can Dance...Sing...Act!	A musical theater camp that pulls it all together: singing, dancing and acting. Not for the faint of heart, you will learn how to perform using all three skills. Working with others, participants will perform daily, be coached through ways to strengthen your performance(s), and prepare a final show for an audience. This course will be taught by successful performers who have experience in musical theater and know what it takes. Be ready to have fun, work hard and form an ensemble!	Incoming 3rd - 5th	5
A to Z Readers	Come practice your reading skills in a small group setting, reading material that is just right for you! This class will assess student reading level and provide individualized lessons for each student, targeting the areas of comprehension, fluency, and vocabulary. We will practice reading skills everyday for three weeks using materials such readers theater scripts, poetry and high interest, non fiction minibooks, all from our A-Z Reading Program. Classes are accepting ages 6-7 years olds and 8 -9 year olds with a limit of ten students per block.	Incoming 1st and 2nd grade	5
Super Scrapbookers	Let's make a scrapbook of some of your favorite possessions and memories! Get ready to assemble a creative collection of fun using your favorite pictures, trinkets, and ideas to create a long-lasting keepsake! At the end of three weeks we will present our scrapbooks to our parents and friends.		5
Under the Sea	Explore the oceans and discover the creatures that live below. From the smallest to the largest, learn all about the amazing animals that inhabit the waters of the world and their importance to mankind. This course will include dioramas, puzzles, fun packets, videos, class presentations, and scrap books	Incoming 3rd and 4th	5
Water Games	Let's get wet and wild with water! Get ready to dive into your favorite games...with water! We don't have a pool...but we have plenty of water to explore ways to cool us off this summer. It's going to get rowdy and crazy with all the water fun we will have this summer!	Incoming 3rd - 5th	5

Course Title	Description	Grade levels..	Period(s)
Kids in Print	We will publish a newspaper for the summer students and faculty. Students will write about things that are meaningful to them. We will learn journalistic style with structure. We will be accountable to deadlines. We will edit and rewrite. We will have a voice in what should be printed or not printed. Learn 20 different ways to say the word "said". Learn to conduct a good interview. Create an interview icebreaker. Conduct a press conference. Learn Proofreading and Editing Skills, Photography, and Design Hints. Learn that newspapers are a cooperative effort. Learn real-life skills such as organizing, prioritizing, meeting deadlines, creative problem solving. Create a Public Relations piece for distribution on the final day.	Incoming 6th	6
Learning to Lead	Ever wonder how you could become a leader at school, among friends, in clubs or on sports teams? There are skills you can learn that help you help others. Self-confidence: the art of being yourself. Public speaking: saying what you mean. Organization: starting with the end in mind. Team-building: inviting others to help. Authenticity: genuinely expressing your values. Guardianship: caring for others. The sooner you learn to lead the sooner you can help make a difference in the world. Get involved now so you can step into leadership roles tomorrow!	Incoming 6th - 8th	6
Printmaking	We will use all kinds of objects - erasers, EZ cut blocks, glue images, and other things to create our own prints - come join us!		6
Self Expression	How can you bring the real you forward? How can your ideas be best expressed? Utilizing various means of expression, participants will explore ways to articulate ideas, build upon insights, access their imagination, and share their best selves. This opportunity to discover what you have to offer by tapping into the arts, self-reflection, and personal expression will allow you to celebrate who you are, and consider how you might share your unique gift of self with others.	Incoming 6th - 8th	6
So You Think You Can Dance...Sing..Act!	A musical theater camp that pulls it all together: singing, dancing and acting. Not for the faint of heart, you will learn how to perform using all three skills. Working with others, participants will perform daily, be coached through ways to strengthen your performance(s), and prepare a final show for an audience. This course will be taught by successful performers who have experience in musical theater and know what it takes. Be ready to have fun, work hard and form an ensemble!	Incoming 6th - 8th	6
Sizzling Spanish - Let's Dance, Sing and Learn Spanish!	A fun activity-based program that introduces children to the excitement of the Spanish language and makes them feel that learning a second language and understanding another culture can be a fun experience. Sizzling Spanish will focus on essential Spanish communication skills. We will use technology as a tool for enhance learning and will have Comp Lab one a week. Recommended for beginners and intermediate students or for all students who wish to expand their ability to speak and understand Spanish!	Incoming 4th - 6th	6

Course Title	Description	Grade levels..	Period(s)
A to Z Readers	Come practice your reading skills in a small group setting, reading material that is just right for you! This class will assess student reading level and provide individualized lessons for each student, targeting the areas of comprehension, fluency, and vocabulary. We will practice reading skills everyday for three weeks using materials such readers theater scripts, poetry and high interest, non fiction minibooks, all from our A-Z Reading Program. Classes are accepting ages 6-7 years olds and 8 -9 year olds with a limit of ten students per block.	Incoming 1st and 2nd grade	6
Under the Sea	Explore the oceans and discover the creatures that live below. From the smallest to the largest, learn all about the amazing animals that inhabit the waters of the world and their importance to mankind. This course will include dioramas, puzzles, fun packets, videos, class presentations, and scrap books	Incoming 3rd and 4th	6
Water Games	Let's get wet and wild with water! Get ready to dive into your favorite games...with water! We don't have a pool...but we have plenty of water to explore ways to cool us off this summer. It's going to get rowdy and crazy with all the water fun we will have this summer!		6